

Cake sale at estate agents

ANDREW Lodge Estate Agents in Downing Street is holding a cake sale as part of a national charity campaign 'The Great Spring Bake 2015' to raise money for the Lions International Blood Research Appeal (LIBRA).

LIBRA, is the only charity in the world that solely raises funds for the haematology department at King's College Hospital in London. Staff are encouraging people to enjoy some tasty treats at their office in Farnham, on Friday, April 17, from 10am to 1pm.

By supporting the Great Spring Bake, Andrew Lodge is helping to raise funds which are urgently required by the haematology department. The world-renowned haematology team will use the funds to develop and trial new treatments for blood disorders and cancers including lymphoma, leukaemia and myeloma.

Successful treatments will help to save the lives of patients across the UK and overseas. Jane Prince, senior negotiator at Andrew Lodge, said: "We are pleased to support the Great Spring Bake 2015 in aid of LIBRA as it is such a worthy cause. During our event people can come along and enjoy some delicious cakes, tea and coffee."

Andrew Lodge, the current chairman of LIBRA, added: "The charity is very close to my heart as I have served as chairman for a number of years. I hope that many people will visit the office and enjoy a cake, all in the name of a good cause.

"Every penny raised will help King's haematology department create treatments that really save lives. Throughout 2015 LIBRA has pledged to raise £200,000, so by supporting our Great Spring Bake event you can help to make a real difference."
