Guests given a guided tour

ABBEYFIELD Wey Valley Society were delighted to welcome the Mayor and Mayoress of Waverley, Mike and Val Band, and the Deputy Mayor and Mayoress of Farnham, John and Gillian Ward, and other distinguished guests to Wey Valley House recently for a tour of the care home's newly refurbished ground floor.

Extensive building works have been carried out during the past few months to improve the lounge and dining areas for the residents who love the new look.

The front lobby and reception have also been extended and redecorated to make a more pleasant working area for staff and a more welcoming look for visitors.

Both mayors chatted to residents, their families and staff while a delicious tea was served and were most complimentary about the improvements and new colour schemes - the Mayor of Waverley joking, "when can I put my name down for this marvellous place?"
