

Lions' donation to Therapy Garden

FARNHAM Lions' president, Keith Harris, has presented a cheque for £800 to The Therapy Garden in Normandy.

The money is being used to fund a new poly tunnel to increase the amount of crops grown for sale in the garden's shop.

Founded in 1998. The Therapy Garden supports young people and adults with learning and physical disabilities through horticulture and retail experience in its shop.

Farnham Lions has supported the charity for the past 16 years. For more information visit the website www.thetherapy-garden.org
