A YOUTH cafe in Lower Bourne has been boosted with the donation of a Sony PlayStation3 games console by Farnham Lions.

The Indigo community-run cafe at The Bourne crossroads provides an opportunity for the young people of Lower Bourne to come together and meet friends.

Open on Fridays from 7pm to 10pm specifically for young people aged between 13 and 17, Youth Cafe offers the Indigo's full menu along with some tuck shop items and the use of the pool table, free wifi, and now a PlayStation3.

Geoff Gandy, a cafe volunteer, said: "We would like to say a big thank you to Farnham Lions, who generously provided the funds to allow us to purchase the PlayStation, which is already proving to be a big hit with the young people.

"The idea of Youth Cafe is to provide a place where young people want to be and want to bring their friends to. By being able to provide up to date, relevant equipment, we are able to do just that.

"Youth Cafe will be running right through the summer holidays, so if you're between the ages of 13 and 17, why not pop in and say hello?"

The Indigo Cafe's regular hours are 8.30am to 4.30pm Monday to Friday and 9am to 4pm on Saturdays. Friday evenings are reserved for Youth Cafe.
